

Take care of business in all the ways that matter.

Allegacy Benefit Solutions starts with a focus on our clients' wellbeing — to design employee benefit programs nimble and innovative enough to suit your company's unique size and objectives.

As one of the few remaining independent employee benefit firms in the Southeast, we understand that your company and your employees deserve the best. Their experience at work must include more than traditional health insurance plans. That's why Allegacy Benefit Solutions develops resourceful solutions that keep costs down, while prioritizing overall employee wellbeing.

Our effective education and holistic support model is evidenced by our 95% client retention rate. Our group and individual plan specialists are locally-focused and take a hands-on approach to create administrative efficiencies for you and your organization. Allow us to get to work and customize a solution for your organization from our scope of employee benefit offerings.
