Allegacy Employees Honored With Service Awards

Winston-Salem, N.C., June 15, 2012 – Allegacy Federal Credit Union recently honored 20 employees with Synergy Service Awards for their dedication and work performance.

The individuals were chosen as employees who truly exhibit the behaviors outlined on a spoke of the Synergy Wheel, a training tool that brings all of Allegacy's products, services, practices and people together, with each spoke of the wheel representing the elements and behaviors consistent with the credit union's mission.

Two employees, Margie Mack and Marlene Simmons, were further recognized as “Synergy Superstars” for the exhibition of all the spokes of the Synergy Wheel.

About Allegacy

Allegacy is one of the largest credit unions in North Carolina, with members throughout the world. Founded in 1967 in Winston-Salem, Allegacy has a broad membership base open to anyone in our community. Current members also include the employees, retirees and families of more than 550 companies throughout the country. Allegacy offers virtually all personal and business financial services.
