Grand Opening Set For Allegacy Federal Credit Union In Mocksville

Mocksville, N.C., January 28, 2013 – Allegacy Federal Credit Union, one of the largest credit unions in North Carolina, announced a grand opening celebration for Tuesday, January 29 from 4 p.m. – 6 p.m. at its new Mocksville location.

Allegacy merged I-R Employees' Federal Credit Union (I-REFCU) into its field of membership last September and added two financial locations, one in Mocksville and the other in Davidson, North Carolina.

Allegacy will host business members of the Davie Chamber, local officials, existing and potential members and business partners during the grand opening celebration. A ribbon cutting is scheduled at 4 p.m. with remarks by Cathy Pace, president of the credit union division, and Fifth District Congresswoman Virginia Foxx.

The financial center is located at 256 Hospital Street in Mocksville.

About Allegacy

Allegacy is one of the largest credit unions in North Carolina, with members throughout the world. Founded in 1967 in Winston-Salem, Allegacy has a broad membership base open to anyone in our community. Current members also include the employees, retirees and families of nearly 600 companies throughout the country. Allegacy offers virtually all personal and business financial services. Allegacy Financial Centers are concentrated in the Triad area with 15 convenient locations and seven high school student-run credit unions in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School system.
