14th Annual “Don’t Wait” Golf Tournament Tees Off October 10, 2013

Winston-Salem, NC, September 23, 2013 – Allegacy Federal Credit Union will host its 14th annual “Don’t Wait” Benefit Golf Tournament on October 10, 2013 at Bermuda Run Country Club in Davie County. Proceeds from the event will benefit Cancer Services, Inc.

To-date, the tournament has raised more than $631,000 which goes directly to breast and ovarian cancer survivors, and women in the community who want to learn prevention and early detection techniques. Cancer Services covers residents in Forsyth, Davie, Stokes, and Yadkin Counties and all services, from financial assistance to medical supplies, special programs, advocacy and more are offered at no charge.

“Our Allegacy family has unfortunately been impacted by cancer more than once,” said Cathy Pace, CEO, Allegacy Federal Credit Union. “Our employees, members and friends and family have continued to show such passion for giving back to the community. The contributions from the tournament mean more breast and ovarian cancer survivors can receive assistance and more in-depth help than ever before.”

Sponsorship opportunities are still available but only a few slots remain for players. Fees for a single player are $125 and team of four can register for $400. The tournament begins with a shotgun start at 1 p.m. For more information, please go to www.allegacyfcu.org.

About Allegacy

Allegacy is one of the largest credit unions in North Carolina, with members throughout the world. Founded in 1967 in Winston-Salem, Allegacy has a broad membership base open to anyone in our community. Current members also include the employees, retirees and families of over 600 companies throughout the country. Allegacy offers virtually all personal and business financial services.
