14th Annual “Don’t Wait” Golf Tournament Raises More Than $40,000 For Cancer Services

Winston-Salem, NC, November 25, 2013 – Allegacy Federal Credit Union’s 14th annual “Don’t Wait” benefit golf tournament held recently at Bermuda Run Country Club in Davie County raised more than $40,000 for Cancer Services, Inc.

To-date, the tournament has raised more than $670,000 for Cancer Services, which goes directly to breast and ovarian cancer survivors, and women in the community who want to learn prevention and early detection techniques. Cancer Services covers residents in Forsyth, Davie, Stokes, and Yadkin Counties and all services, from financial assistance to medical supplies, special programs, advocacy and more are offered at no charge.

“The contributions from the tournament mean more breast and ovarian cancer survivors can receive assistance and more in-depth help than ever before,” said Cathy Pace, Allegacy CEO. “We appreciate the dedication and positive impact that Cancer Services provides to women and their families in our community through medication and financial assistance, equipment, supplies, wigs and prostheses, transportation to treatment and multiple support groups.”

For additional information about Cancer Services, please call (336) 760-9983 or visit www.cancerservicesonline.org.
