Allegacy Federal Credit Union Announces New Hire

Winston-Salem, N.C., September 4, 2014 – Allegacy Federal Credit Union, one of the largest credit unions in North Carolina, announced that Robert Thomas has recently joined the Allegacy Business Solutions team.

Thomas, named vice president of commercial banking, has 30 years' experience in every facet of retail and commercial financial industry. Thomas is responsible for Allegacy Business Solutions' line of commercial services, expanding and improving business products and strengthening relationships with Allegacy members and the community.

Most recently, Thomas served as a consultant for banks, borrowers and investors focusing on business development, best practices and implementation. Thomas holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Appalachian State University and received extensive training from the North Carolina School of Banking. He has volunteered with many nonprofit organizations and currently serves on the Alumni Board of Advisors and the Business School Board of Advisors for Lees-McRae College.

“Rob’s expertise aligns perfectly with Allegacy’s dedication to strategic enhancements for our retail and commercial business partners,” said Rick Leander, president and managing director of Allegacy Business Solutions. “At Allegacy, we are committed to helping businesses achieve results through extensive collaboration, ultimately helping them make smart financial choices.”

Thomas operates an office out of the Allegacy Charlotte location on 1900 Randolph Road and the Winston-Salem headquarters located 1691 Westbrook Plaza Drive.
