

Contact:
Chrystal Parnell
Allegacy Federal Credit Union
336.774.1105

Karen Jarvis
The Message Factory PR
336.575.6102

Allegacy Grows With A New Location In King

Winston-Salem, N.C., October 23, 2015 – Allegacy, one of the largest credit unions in North Carolina is growing. Allegacy has expanded its services in Stokes County with the opening of its newest facility, located at 109 Carmel Drive, just off Main Street and Highway 52 in King.

“Our new King location allows us to do right for our members by making a positive impact on their financial lives closer to where they live and work,” said Cathy Pace, Allegacy President and CEO. “Our mission is to help Allegacy owners make smart financial choices, and by doing that we are enhancing their overall wellbeing, improving their finances and making life easier. It’s just part of our commitment to our members.”

Allegacy opened the King facility, Tuesday, October 20, bringing its total number of branches to 16. The King office features Allegacy’s signature concierge service style, and offers a full line of financial opportunities for members including commercial loans, personal lending options such as mortgages and auto loans, and checking and savings accounts. “Its architecture and design are unique, offering members an experience that makes them feel at home,” said Pace.

Allegacy’s other Stokes County location is located outside Tobaccolville’s RJR facility. After a short closure for renovation, that location will reopen November 2 to exclusively provide financial planning and investment services to the RJR facility employees and other members. An ATM will be onsite for convenient deposits and withdrawals for members.

“We remain committed to the RJR facility and the loyal members there who have allowed us to grow beyond the Tobacoville location,” said Denise Maxwell, former Tobacoville and current King financial center manager. “Due to its location outside the RJR facility, it was not always top-of-mind for Stokes residents looking for loans, mortgages and other financial needs. We are excited to extend our financial knowledge and offerings farther into the wonderful Stokes County community and become a bigger part of the area for generations to come.”

Hours at the new Allegacy location are as follows:

- Lobby hours from 9 a.m. – 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday with an extended hour till 6 p.m. on Friday.
- Drive thru is open from 8:30 a.m. – 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday with an extended hour till 6 p.m. on Friday.

About Allegacy

Allegacy is one of the largest credit unions in North Carolina, with members throughout the world. Founded in 1967 in Winston-Salem, Allegacy has a broad membership base that currently serves the employees, retirees and families of over 600 companies throughout the country. Allegacy offers virtually all personal and business financial services. Allegacy Financial Centers are concentrated in the Triad area with 16 convenient locations and eight high school student-run credit unions in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School system. For more information, visit AllegacyFCU.org.

Non-deposit investment products and services are offered through CUSO Financial Services, L.P. ("CFS"), a registered broker-dealer (Member FINRA/SIPC) and SEC Registered Investment Advisor. Products offered through CFS: are not NCUA/NCUSIF or otherwise federally insured, are not guarantees or obligations of the credit union and may involve investment risk including possible loss of principal. Investment Representatives are registered through CFS. Allegacy Federal Credit Union has contracted with CFS to make non-deposit investment products and services available to credit union members.

###