17th Annual “Don’t Wait” Golf Tournament Raises Nearly $67,000 For Cancer Services

Winston-Salem, NC, December, 2016 – Allegacy Federal Credit Union’s 17th annual ‘Don’t Wait’ benefit golf tournament at Bermuda Run Country Club in October raised $66,461.93 for Cancer Services, Inc.

Since it began, the tournament has raised just over $776,000 which goes directly to breast and ovarian cancer survivors, and women in the community who want to learn prevention and early detection techniques. Cancer Services primarily serves residents in Forsyth, Davie, Stokes, and Yadkin Counties, but assisted individuals in over 59 counties in North Carolina last year. All services, from financial assistance to medical supplies, special programs, advocacy and more are offered at no charge.

“We are honored to continue the DW golf tournament fundraiser so more breast and ovarian cancer survivors can continue to receive support and in-depth help in order to improve their overall wellbeing,” said Cathy Pace, Allegacy President and CEO. “Cancer Services remains an integral part of our community and we thank the sponsor, our members and the community for joining together to impact others when they need it the most.”
