Allegacy Federal Credit Union Opens Fourth Charlotte Area Location in Indian Trail

Celebrants included political and Union County leaders welcoming Allegacy as community resource.

CHARLOTTE, N.C., January 25, 2024—Allegacy Federal Credit Union celebrated the grand opening of its Indian Trail Financial Center with a ribbon-cutting event on Wednesday, January 24 (307 Unionville-Indian Trail Rd.). The new location is the fourth financial center to open in Greater Charlotte in two years.

“As one of North Carolina’s largest credit unions, Allegacy continues to invest in the growth of the Charlotte area. We wholeheartedly believe in the power of community, our employees, and a strong culture of wellbeing,” said Allegacy’s President and CEO, Cathy J. Pace. “We continually strive to be a valued resource for the communities we serve, like Indian Trail. In fact, our local Allegacy teammates have jumped into this community with both feet including partaking in WinterFest, signing on as the presenting sponsor of Family Fun Day on June 3, partnering with local nonprofit Common Heart and becoming active members of the Union County Chamber.”

The credit union also presented a check to Common Heart to support the non-profit’s Getting Ahead Program and mark the beginning of the new partnership. “I’m proud to be part of Allegacy and see our support for a local organization that is near and dear to my heart,” said Indian Trail Financial Center Manager, Melissa Garcia. “Common Heart has made a positive impact on my family and for that, I am incredibly grateful. Our team is excited and ready to serve the people of Indian Trail!”
