Allegacy Celebrates Relocation of Mocksville Financial Center

Winston-Salem, N.C., April 12, 2023—Allegacy Federal Credit Union celebrated the ribbon cutting and relocation of its Mocksville financial center on April 12.

Allegacy’s Mocksville financial center moved from 256 Hospital Road to 822 Valley Road on March 27. The credit union chose the new space to provide current and potential members easier access to Allegacy’s financial resources in a more centralized location. The new financial center includes upgrades and provides a new drive-thru Interactive Teller Machine (ITM) that features video assistance, offers self-service transactions, and live teller assistance on Saturday mornings.

Guests and Allegacy staff attended the grand opening event to celebrate with a ribbon-cutting ceremony featuring local community leaders and guest speakers. Speakers included William Marklin III, mayor of Mocksville and Melinda Szeliga, chair of the Davie Chamber board of directors.

“We are excited to offer our members a more accessible location with the opening of our new space for our Mocksville team on Valley Road,” said Allegacy President and CEO, Cathy Pace. “Our members come first and providing better access to our financial centers is vital. Our Mocksville team looks forward to serving our members and potential new members at the new location.”

Local members and business owners attended, toured the new facility, and enjoyed a reception following the ribbon cutting.
