

CONTACT:

Melody Owens
mowens@allegacy.org

Allegacy and UNC Greensboro Partner to Host “Community Tech Night” for Free Technical Support for All Community Members

Prize drawing for four Chromebooks will be conducted at the event

Greensboro, NC, October 23, 2024—Allegacy Federal Credit Union, in partnership with the University of North Carolina, Greensboro’s Computer Science Department, is hosting its free technology support drop-in event, “Community Tech Night,” on Thursday, October 24 from 6:00- 8:00 pm (1451 S Elm-Eugene St. Greensboro, NC). During the event, there will also be four prize drawings for new Chromebook laptops.

All personal technology devices that need support are welcome (e.g., laptops, mobile phones, tablets, and printers). The event is available to all community members, regardless of whether they’re an Allegacy member or not.

“Fixing and maintaining technology devices can be frustrating and very expensive, especially for the nonprofit and faith-based communities who often do not have the funds to purchase new devices,” said Allegacy’s Technology Experience Analyst Jonathan Allen. “That’s why we offer our “Community Tech Night” to give everyone, regardless of their income level, a chance to receive free support on of their personal devices.”

About Allegacy

For 57 years, Allegacy Federal Credit Union has helped the members, employees, and the communities it serves be their best by helping all make smart financial decisions. Allegacy is one of the largest credit unions in North Carolina, serving more than 178,000 members worldwide with $2.3 billion in assets and more than $1.6 billion in assets under management in Allegacy Investment Group, offered through CUSO Financial Services, LP. With roots in Winston-Salem, Allegacy has 19 locations across the Triad and Charlotte areas, and nine high school student-run credit unions. Allegacy offers personal and business financial services to its members, including the employees, retirees, and families of more than 5,000 companies throughout the country. To learn more, visit Allegacy.org.