

CONTACT:

Allegacy Corporate Communications
corporatecommunications@allegacy.org

Touchdown! Allegacy Helps Fill The Stadium by Purchasing 1000 Tickets For The Wake Forest Coaches' Kids Programs and Credit Union Staff

Allegacy Federal Credit Union thanked its hard-working, dedicated employees by treating them with tickets to the Wake Forest football game against Boston College on October 22, 2022. Each employee was given up to six tickets for themselves and their family members.

The tickets were part of a larger initiative to help Wake Forest fill Truist Field and experience its third sold out game of the season. Allegacy employees received 200 of the 1000 tickets purchased by the credit union, while the remaining 800 were gifted to the Wake Forest Coaches' Kids Program, which is designed to give at-risk youth an opportunity to experience a Wake Forest athletic event.

Groups that benefited from the tickets include:

- Big Brother Big Sister
- Carolina Tarheels Youth Football League
- City of Winston Salem Recreation and Parks
- Guiding Institute for Developmental Education
- League of Extraordinary Gentlemen
- MLK Recreation Center
- My Brother's Keeper Mentoring Program
- Next Level Youth Enrichment
- Phi Lo Youth Program
- Winston-Salem Mavericks
- YMCA

Allegacy will conduct another ticket giveaway for the upcoming Wake Forest v. Syracuse game on November 19 for kids in the community, credit union employees, and their families.

###

About Allegacy

For 55 years, Allegacy Federal Credit Union has helped its members, employees and the communities it serves be their best by helping people make smart financial choices. By doing right, Allegacy has become one of the largest credit unions in North Carolina serving over 170,000 members worldwide with $2 billion in assets and over $1.6 billion in assets under management in its financial planning group, Allegacy Investment Group. With roots in Winston-Salem, Allegacy has 18 locations and nine high school student-run credit unions. Allegacy offers personal and business financial services to help a broad membership base including the employees, retirees and families of over 1,800 companies throughout the country. To learn more, visit Allegacy.org.