Allegacy Federal Credit Union Awards $13,500 in Scholarships To Local Students

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C., June 15, 2023 – Seven local students have been awarded $13,500 in scholarships from Allegacy Federal Credit Union.

In December 2022, the credit union announced its partnership with the Carolinas Credit Union Foundation to create the Allegacy Foundation. With the launch of the Foundation, Allegacy expanded its scholarship program, increased award amounts, and included two new scholarships named for past and current Allegacy presidents and CEOs, Ike Keener, and Cathy Pace, respectively.

“Allegacy is incredibly proud of these students’ academic achievements and thrilled to offer support for the next chapters of their lives,” said Allegacy’s President and CEO Cathy Pace. “Advocating for education is vital to the growth of the next generation. Allegacy is honored to continue expanding opportunities for students in our communities to further their education.”

Ike Keener Scholarship
- De’Von France | Saint Louis University, Madrid Campus

Cathy Pace Scholarship
- Joshua Richardson | University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Mel Hughes Scholarship
- Rebekah Minton | Wingate University
- Chelsea Jackson | North Carolina A&T State University
- Isabella Pierce | Johnson & Wales University
- Joshua Hall | North Carolina State University
