Cathy Pace Elected To PSCU Executive Committee

Local CEO driving innovation through Board work with leading industry provider

Winston-Salem, June 1, 2021, N.C. – Allegacy's President and CEO, Cathy Pace, has been elected to serve on the Executive Committee of PSCU's Board of Directors for 2021. PSCU is one of the largest Credit Union Service Organizations (CUSO) in the United States and provides payment options, fraud protection, digital solutions and more for over 1,500 credit unions.

Pace, who has served on the PSCU board since 2017, will now take on the executive leadership role serving as secretary alongside four other credit union CEOs from Illinois, Minnesota, Hawaii and Wisconsin.

"I am incredibly honored to be elected to the executive committee and look forward to working closely with the PSCU leadership and board as we continue to enable the credit union industry to drive success and provide an unparalleled member experience at credit unions across the country," said Pace, who also serves as chair of the PSCU Board Governance Committee for 2021. "PSCU is launching innovative solutions for its credit unions and it's an exciting time in the credit union movement. I'm grateful for the opportunity to help other credit unions grow and serve their members well."

PSCU's board of directors is comprised of CEOs from credit unions of all asset sizes and varying fields of membership from diverse geographic locations throughout the country. For more information about the CUSO, visit PSCU.com.
