Allegacy Federal Credit Union Hires Milli Herring To Lead Greensboro Financial Center

Winston-Salem, N.C., November 8, 2017– Allegacy Federal Credit Union, one of the largest credit unions in North Carolina, announced Milli Herring has joined the credit union as financial center manager at its newest Greensboro location in Spartan Village on UNCG’s campus.

In Herring’s new role, she will continue to grow partnership opportunities and build relationships with select employee groups, as well as lead, manage and coach a team of sales and member service representatives at the new location.

Herring has almost 10 years of financial and training expertise in the local Triad market. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

“Milli brings a wealth of knowledge and financial experience to our members,” said Tracy Myers, Allegacy vice president, business and community development. “We are excited about expanding our presence in the Guilford County area and beyond, increasing opportunities to help our members make positive changes in their financial lives and overall wellbeing with our many services.”

Allegacy’s Spartan Village location is scheduled to open in November and includes resources focused on small business, financial planning and mortgages. In addition to offering a full array of retail services, Allegacy offers competitive small business products and services and employer benefits, including the recently announced wellness collaboration with the state-of-the-art Leonard J. Kaplan Center for Wellness. Allegacy members earn financial rewards each time they visit the Center.
