18th Annual “Don’t Wait” Golf Tournament Raises Over $80,000 For Cancer Services

Winston-Salem, NC, December 31, 2017 – Allegacy Federal Credit Union’s 18th annual ‘Don’t Wait’ benefit golf tournament at Bermuda Run Country Club in October raised $80,712 for Cancer Services, Inc.

Since it began, the tournament has raised more than $850,000 which goes directly to breast and ovarian cancer survivors, and women in the community who want to learn prevention and early detection techniques. Cancer Services primarily serves residents in Forsyth, Davie, Stokes, and Yadkin Counties, but assisted individuals in over 59 counties in North Carolina last year. All services, from financial assistance to medical supplies, special programs, advocacy and more are offered at no charge.

“Cancer Services is an integral part of our community and we are honored to support its life saving work,” said Cathy Pace, Allegacy President and CEO. “By joining together to impact others when they need it the most, we are able to help improve the overall wellbeing of so many breast and ovarian cancer survivors.”
