Tracy Duncan Named Top Financial Advisor

Winston-Salem, N.C., January 12, 2018 – Tracy Duncan, a CFP® and CFS Financial Advisor at Allegacy Investment Group, has been honored by Bank Investment Consultant magazine as one of the ‘Top 100 Bank Financial Advisors’ in the country.

The ranking is designed to recognize the most successful bank and credit union advisors based on several key areas such as assets under management, 12-month production, yearly percentage growth and amount of fee-based business. Duncan ranked number 42 in the country.

Duncan has 28 years’ experience in the financial industry and has been a valuable advisor at Allegacy since 2001. He maintains his office in the Clemmons Allegacy financial center location. Duncan has earned many accolades throughout his career including being inducted into the CUSO Financial Services, LP Hall of Fame which identifies inductees as an elite group of programs or individuals providing exceptional investment services.

“Because of our service-driven, not sales-driven culture, Tracy has developed many deep and meaningful client relationships which allows him to develop personalized plans,” said Steve Franke, program manager, Allegacy Investment Group. “Helping our members achieve overall financial wellbeing is one of Tracy’s many talents. We are proud of him for earning this Top 100 award.”
