Allegacy Announces Mel Hughes Scholarship Recipients

Winston-Salem, N.C., July 23, 2018 – Eight local students have been awarded a Mel Hughes Scholarship from Allegacy Federal Credit Union.

The annual scholarship program provides four $1,300 scholarships for college/university students and three $250 scholarships for community/technical school students. The applicant must be a full-time student enrolled with at least 12 semester hours or a high school senior accepted on a full-time basis, at an accredited post-secondary institution.

“Allegacy proudly supports these students’ academic achievements and is thrilled to offer assistance for the next chapter in their lives,” said Cathy Pace, Allegacy President and CEO. “Supporting education is critical to the wellbeing of individuals and the communities they live in, and Allegacy is honored to help these students with some of the expenses associated with furthering their education.”

The recipients of the $1,300 scholarships include:

- Robert Landon Judy – Appalachian State University
- Samuel Price Lempp – UNC Chapel Hill
- David Morton – Wake Forest University
- Katelyn Rose Rhyne – UNC Chapel Hill

Scholarships totaling $250 each were awarded to:

- McKenzie Dotson – Surry Community College
- Abigail McLain – Mitchell Community College
- Grace O. Sams – Forsyth Technical Community College
- Garrett Willoughby – East Surry High School
